Subd. As announced by the Dewan in his speech to the R.A. Members on 22/4/1918 the triennial election of the R.A. members will not be held this year but will be postponed to next year. In amending the Mysore Legislative Council Regn last year it was intended to hold the general election both by R.A. and the D^E groups in 1918 so that the Elections for Legis. Council by R.A. members may be held by them soon after they are elected triennials for the R.A. and thus a section was added extending the period of ^{all} the ~~new~~ additional members of the Council up to 1st Nov 1918 on the understanding that there would be a general election of R.A. members this year. It is a point therefore now for consideration whether the Legis. Cl. Regn should not again be amended so as to ~~not~~ further extend the period of the present members of the Legis. Council up to 1st Nov 1919. If such a course is ~~found~~ decided upon a Bill

2. The term of the members of the Legislative Council was recently extended from two to three years and the Regulation was accordingly amended. In moving that the Bill amending the Regulation be read in Council, the member said:
"Under the present system, the members of the R.A.
are elected once in 3 years and the members of the Legislative Council once in 2 years. To avoid this anomaly of an elected member continuing as a member of the Legislative Council even though he might cease to be a member of the R.A., the present Bill is introduced." Again in support of the proposition the member stated: "This date (1st Nov 1918) has been fixed in view of the fact that the elections of the members of the Representative Assembly should take place
before this date."

3. ~~And~~ In view of the existing system, it is clear that the term of the existing elected members will continue only till the 1st Nov 1918. An election has therefore to be ordered immediately, both for the election by the District Groups and that by the R.A.

4. The electoral roll of the RA has been broadened, and the election has been postponed for next year. Hence so long as the term of the Legislative Council Members do not synchronise with the term of the RA. Members generally, there will be always some anomaly. But the election of members to the RA from the Local Boards, Municipal Councils, and recognised associations are annual, - the same system cannot therefore apply in this case. These ^{members} ~~from~~ however only 79 out of a total body of 291 members. The remaining 212 are elected from taluqs their term is 3 years. As the election to the RA has been postponed till next year it is a point for consideration whether the election to the Legislative Council should ^{also} be postponed to achieve the object noted above, or whether an election may be held before the period this year. If the former course has to be adopted, the Regulation has to be amended by extending the term of the elected members up to 1st Nov 1919; if the latter course be adopted, the object with which the amendment to the Regulation was passed will be frustrated to a great extent.

6. I have discussed the case with the Asst Secy III.

In view of the postponement of the elections to the R.A. two courses are open :-

(a) to let the existing Assembly elect its representatives to the Leg. Council at the Darara session & also hold its elections say in Sept. next;

(b) to extend the term of the present Leg. Council members by another year up to 1st Nov 1919 & to have all the elections next year.

If (a) is adopted the elections will not synchronise with each other & the object with which the Regn. was amended sometime ago will not be attained.

If (b) is adopted there will be a synchronisation of the elections, but it may be said that Govt. is extending the term of the members needlessly. The extension (beyond the three year limit) will be one year in the case of the men elected by the R.A & about 7 months in the case of the men elected by the D.S. The Regulation will have to be suitably amended.

If all things considered it seems desirable to adopt course (b) & if this is approved the necessary draft regn. will be prepared. This may be considered at next meeting of Council.

q. It is almost certain course (b) has to be adopted under the circumstances. I have been seeing with the Secy in the Leg. Dept. I can't understand why the Br. Secy has been making points to be brought up in the meeting of the members of the Council & the Regn. and expects an official reply to the necessary amendments.

It was intended to be done by the 1st July & while the 1st July 1917 was the date of the meeting of the Council.

Final Note by the First Member of Council

Subject:—

Extension of the period of the present additional members of the Mysore Legislative Council.

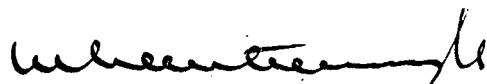

25 In order to avoid the anomaly of an elected member continuing as a member of the Legislative Council even though he might cease to be a member of the Representative Assembly, a Regulation to amend the Mysore Legislative Council Regulation was^x passed in October 1917 extending the term of office of the members of the Legislative Council to three years and the period of the members at the time of passing the Regulation up to 1st November 1918 so as to have the election and nomination of members to the Council to synchronise with that of the general elections to the Representative Assembly.

26 But in April last the electorate for the Representative Assembly was broadened^x and the election put off till 1919.

27 It is therefore necessary to postpone the elections and nominations to the Legislative Council by one more year and the Bill^x has accordingly been framed.

28 His Highness' gracious approval to place the Bill before the Legislative Council is required.

Secretary,

The Mysore Legislative Council
Bangalore

Sir,

The biennial election of members to the Representative Assembly, which should have been held this year in the usual course, has been postponed by the order of Govt to next year.

With a view to make the term of office of the members elected to the Legislative Council from the Representative Assembly conform with the term of office of the members of the Representative Assembly Regulation IX of 1917 was passed last year introducing some modifications in Sec. 6 of our Legislative Council Regulation. At that time it was not in the contemplation of the Govt. to extend the term of office of the members of the Representative Assembly by another year.

So far as ~~go~~ our state is concerned
the Regulation itself fixes the term of Office and no power is reserved to extend the term of Office of members, whenever the Court thinks it necessary to do so.

When this anomaly was brought to the notice of the Dewan in the last April Session of R. A., he was pleased to state that the subject was already under consideration.

I therefore think it necessary to amend Sec: 6
of our L. C. Regulation as suggested below.

Sub Sec: 2 of 6 may be deleted & in Subsec:
1 of Sec: 6 between the words "years" and "and"
the words "extendable by order of Court: (or Dewan) to a term for a period not exceeding one year", may be inserted, Or a proviso to Sec: 6 may be added
as follows: "provided that the Court or (Dewan) may by notification in the Gazette extend for a period of not more than one year the term of Office of such members."

As the matter is an urgent one

25)

A Bill to extend the period of the present additional members of the Mysore Legislative Council.

(As finally passed by the Legislative Council on the 17th Sep: 1918.)

Whereas it is expedient to extend the period of the present additional members of the Mysore Legislative Council; His Highness the Maharaja is pleased to enact as follows :-

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Mysore Legislative Council Regulation 1907, as amended by Regulation, IX of 1917, the period of appointment of the existing additional members of the Council shall be -- deemed to continue till and to cease on the 1st day - of November 1919.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

According to Section 2 of Regulation LX of 1917 (the Regulation further to amend the Mysore Legislative Council Regulation 1907) the term of the existing additional members of the Legislative Council was made to expire on the 1st November 1919, so that the elections for the Legislative Council both by the Representative Assembly Members and by District Electorates might be synchronous with the elections of members to the Representative Assembly. But in April 1918 Government ordered the postponement of the general elections of members to the Representative Assembly by one year and it is therefore deemed necessary to postpone the elections to the Legislative Council also by one year. The Bill has therefore been framed to extend the period of the present members up to 1st November 1919.
